

Welcome to Convention Connections

Welcome to Convention Connections, Inc., a nationally recognized full service meeting and convention planning company with a customer-focused approach. Based in Richmond, Virginia, our main goal since our founding in 1994 has been to provide our clients with the most comprehensive and personalized level of service in the industry. Whether you are planning an intimate retreat for fifteen, or a conference for thousands, we are committed to providing our clients with the same unmatched level of service and attention to detail in a thorough and timely manner.

Please browse our site for more information about who we are, and the services we have to offer.